12:10 pm to 1:00 pm	Thinking Outside the Box – Innovative Cross-Border Practices	Intersectionality and Inherent Bias in FDR	FDR, Family Law and Bankruptcy	Marketing your Practice
	Donna Petrucelli, Robin Deutsch, Michael Aurit, Don Sapoznic, Hilary Linton (Moderator) Learn all about the latest innovations and developments in American family dispute resolution from this group of “regulars” at the highly acclaimed Town Hall Series of our sister organization, The Academy of Professional Family Mediators.	Tobi Ajibolade, Mason Morningstar, Shabina Begum, Mara Clarke, Kayla Viau (Moderator) Join this stellar panel to explore the experiences of discrimination and bias that our clients face, and how these experiences have shaped their understanding of relationships and family. Learn approaches to check and diminish your own inherent bias, to identify and gently expose a client’s experience, and to provide a more effective voice for everyone in the room.	Robert Klotz, Lorne Wolfson (Moderator) In troubling economic times, Family Law professionals are often confronted with the intersection between Family Law and Bankruptcy and Insolvency Law. Participants in this session will hear from a Senior Bankruptcy and Insolvency lawyer who will provide valuable information and advice for those professionals who have clients facing Bankruptcy or Insolvency.	Presenter details soon Hear from industry professionals on how to effectively market your practice to get the clients you want. Learn what works and what doesn’t, and some pitfalls and privacy issues you might not be aware of.
