

Foundations to Mastery – Breakout Sessions

101 SESSIONS

	SUBSTANTIVE	PROFESSIONALISM	FINANCIAL	PRACTICE MANAGEMENT
11:10 am to 12:00 pm	IPV and Power Imbalances in a Post Covid World Nilufa Hussein, Tanisha Sri Bhaggiyadatta, Martha McCarthy, Dr. Mohammed Baobaid, Deborah Sinclair (Moderator) This panel of professionals will explore the connections between family dispute resolution and intimate partner violence from all perspectives, leaving attendees with a clear understanding of their responsibilities as FDR professionals, and with information, resources and best practices to help them comply with those responsibilities.	Differentiating between Coaches and Mental Health Professionals Devorah Jones, Dr. Natasha Williams, Ali Liénaux, Linda Ennis (Moderator) This panel will help you understand the different roles and approaches of divorce coaches and mental health professionals. Clients may need to be coached about how to manage their divorce process, they may have mental health challenges, or perhaps need help with both. Join moderator Dr. Linda Ennis as she navigates the supports these professionals can bring to the table.	Differentiating between Financial, Coaches, Certified Divorce Financial Specialist and CBVs Nyla Roopnarinesingh, Linda Cartier, Gail Belchior, Matthew Krofchick (Moderator) There are many financial professionals that can be involved in Family Law matters. In this session, participants will hear from a financial coach, a Chartered Financial Divorce Specialist and a Chartered Business Valuator who will discuss how they can assist in Family Law cases, when they should be consulted and when and how they should be used.	Resources for SRCs – Tips, Tools and Referrals Presenter details soon Update your tool box and reference lists with these helpful resources for your self-represented FDR clients. Learn what’s new, what’s changed, and what’s coming.